

Ottoman Cultures: Society, Politics and Trade in the Turkish Empire, 1299-1922

NEH Summer Institute for Teachers in Istanbul, Turkey and surrounding cities

Join Primary Source in Turkey this summer for a three-week institute on Ottoman cultures!

Institute dates: July 8 - 26, 2013

Application Deadline: March 4, 2013

Open to K-12 educators
(See website for eligibility details)

Directors & Faculty:

Deborah Cunningham, PhD, Primary Source Senior Program Director

Dana Sajdi, PhD, Assistant Professor of History at Boston College

Barbara Petzen, Founder of Middle East Connections

Susan Zeiger, PhD, Primary Source Program Director

For 623 years, the Ottoman Empire knit together peoples of many ethnicities, religions, and cultures. Cosmopolitan in mindset, innovative in governance, fearsome in battle, and pioneering in the arts, the empire at its height showcased a combination of qualities that made it legendary on three continents. Through a multidisciplinary approach, this summer institute will explore the rise, achievements and legacies of the Ottomans – and how they may be included in school curricula.

Apply online:
<http://resources.primarysource.org/ottomancultures>

Questions? Contact Sameera Anwar at sameera@primarysource.org or (617) 923-9933 x22.

